'68 May Day

A worried SGA president Robert Jontos solemnly gazes on MHC's campus and ponders 1967-68 problems.

PUBLICATIONS

Should you care to write (and only the saints know why you should) you must needs have knowledge and art and magic — the knowledge of the music of words, the art of being artless, and the magic of loving your readers.

Comet Staff Seeks

Editor-in-chief June Herron wonders what news the Comet will have to cover for each edition of the student publication.

Comet staffers Nancy Norman and Melinda Kuhn explore possibilities for a Comet feature article.

Staff photographer Larry McGraw checks his camera before taking another snapshot while sports editor Cary Schmiedel tracks down news during the WVIAC Tournament at the Civic Center.

News Everywhere During Year

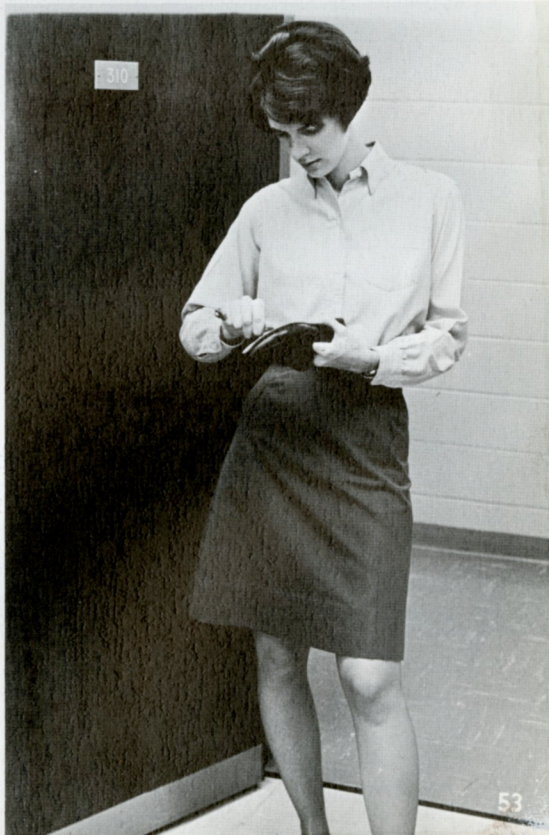

Caught reading their own copies of the Comet are fall assistant editors Judy Barrett and Carolyn Kelso. Interesting bits of news are even found on sidewalk benches.

At the wheel during the spring semester as assistant editor is Nancy Slack who drives places for the news.

Taking a new approach to gathering the news this fall is the 1968-69 staff consisting of assistant editor Nancy Norman, editor Melinda Kuhn, sports editor Bob Amato, and business manager Leon Pack. Adviser Linda Leckie insists that news can even be found scraping the bottom of one's shoe.

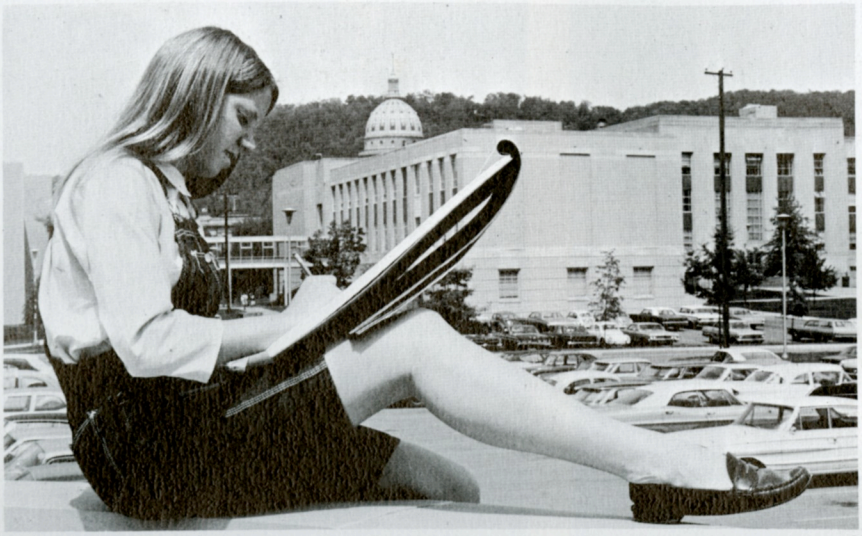

Sports Editor John Neuner explores another exciting event while compiling information for the athletics coverage in the Harveyan; dorm man Bill Cohen enjoys a different view of the campus in his "tub."

Taking a break from the daily routine of typing copy and captions is Waynette Young as she tries to catch a little sunshine. April Stollings isn't really going to climb that tree although editing the underclasses section would give anyone cause to do so.

Harveyan Covers Entire Year at M.H.C.

Harveyan artist Nancy Schnitzius busily works on the cover design for this year's publication.

Adviser Mrs. Jo Blackwood is often seen riding her bicycle around campus with son Andy in tow. Swinging around a pole is Greek editor Donna Robinette.

Student Life editor Patty Neger discovers it's all in a day's work as she attempts to teach the art of whiffle ball to young Andy Blackwood at the publication staff's picnic.

That little blond you've seen running around all year with the camera is none other than Bev Smith, the Harveyan's photographer.

Editor Mila Albertson and first semester Assistant Editor Terri Herron go over plans and pictures for this year's complete coverage of events as the Harveyan moves to a late summer delivery plan.

IN MEMORIAM

MARK P. ROBINSON

In remembrance of our beloved brother, Mark Patrick Robinson, we would like to pay one last tribute to him. Being one of our founders, he devoted a large portion of his life to us thus playing a great role in our brotherhood. A self-made man living life to its fullest, Mark possessed an effervescent personality which made his presence always felt by those around him. His words of wisdom lifted us when we were down, giving us hope in the hours of despair. Although words cannot express the legacy he has left us, the spirit of our departed brother Mark Patrick Robinson will remain in our midst.

And from the guys at the Plantation . . .

The past years have been years we will never be able to forget. From the first day of our college lives and the tug of war to the last with graduate record exams and graduation, memories and friendships have been made here that will be remembered for years to come. Our list of "thank you's" could go forever, and if we started to list people, we're sure we would leave some out. So instead, we wish to thank everyone at Morris Harvey College for making our college years those we will never forget. To the seniors we want to wish all the happiness and success we possibly can, and to the underclassmen we wish the same plus the hope that your years at M.H.C. will be as enjoyable and prosperous as ours have been. And to everyone here at Morris Harvey we now say good-bye.

Tom, Bob, Rick, and Bob
